

Explore Zone

Name _____

How many things can you find in the area?
List them in the space below.

1. Organize the items in your list into at least three groups.

2. Choose three items for each category and describe their roles in the environment.

(a) Living

(b) Nonliving

3. Describe an interaction between two of the living organisms you observed.

4. Choose one living organism from your list and draw a diagram of its life cycle.

5. Create a food chain using at least three items from your list.